Adding Images To SNAC

Updated February 2022

After a SNAC record is published, images can be linked/imported from Wikimedia Commons

The publication step is the step that gives the SNAC record its permanent Ark ID, and that's what's required for connecting to Wikidata.

To Add an Image:

1. Navigate to the Wikidata Page
2. If there is an image already in the Wikidata item, you're set. If there is no image, you'll need to check Wikimedia Commons or upload an image to Commons (if possible)

Note: You do not need to be logged into Wikidata or create an account. It is recommended to do so; more information is here.

If there is an image already and you either want to add another image or make a preferential change check out more information in Wikidata.

3. Scroll to see if there is a SNAC Ark ID attached to the record

Find the item under Identifiers (or a control + f key)

4. If you need to add the SNAC Ark ID, at the end of the list of Identifiers you'll see + add statement

The screenshot shows the Wikidata edit interface. At the top, a search bar contains the text 'sn'. Below the search bar, a list of suggestions is displayed:

- SNAC Ark ID
identifier for items in the Social Networks and Archival Context system
- Store norske leksikon ID (SNL ID)
identifier of an article in the online encyclopedia snl.no
- SNCF Station Identifier
identifier for train stations used by SNCF
- Snapchat username
this item's username on Snapchat

On the right side of the interface, there are several action buttons:

- publish (checked) × cancel ?
- + add qualifier
- + add reference
- + add statement

5. Start typing in “SNAC Ark ID”; Wikidata will begin to fill it out for you

Information

Ark ID: w6hj00bg

SNAC ID: 33992163

6. Find the Ark ID on the SNAC record under Information

7. Copy and paste the Ark ID and select publish

8. It will take a few minutes for SNAC to update with an image

What to do if there are no images in Wikidata?

If there is no image in Wikidata it means:

- No one has uploaded one into Wikidata
- There is no image in Wikimedia Commons

Wikidata has a tutorial for adding an image. Find that here.

Note: Wikimedia Commons has many rules for uploading images and images have to be in the public domain or under a free license (more here). It's not always possible that there is an image available either in Wikimedia Commons or to upload into Wiki Commons.

If you need to add images to Wikimedia Commons you can find out more information here.

The screenshot shows the Wikimedia Commons Main Page. At the top, the browser address bar displays "commons.wikimedia.org/wiki/Main_Page". The page features the Wikimedia Commons logo on the left, which includes a globe with arrows and the text "WIKIMEDIA COMMONS". Below the logo is a navigation menu with links for "Main page", "Welcome", "Community portal", "Village pump", and "Help center". A "Language select" dropdown menu is set to "English". The main content area is titled "Wikimedia Commons" and includes the subtitle "a collection of 62,793,039 freely usable media files to which anyone can contribute". To the right of the title are buttons for "Images", "Sounds", "Videos", and "Upload". The "Picture of the day" section features a photograph of a white butterfly on a purple flower. The "Monthly photo challenge" section encourages users to upload photos and includes a camera icon and a button that says "Check out this month's challenges". The "Highlights" section provides information for first-time visitors, mentioning "Featured pictures" and "Quality images".
