News from the Operations Committee

General Updates

Communications:

The Communications Working Group continues work on updating content on the public SNAC website.

Developer's Update (Joseph):

SNACSchool:

Given the extended government shutdown, the SNACSchool Working Group has had no contact with Jerry and Dina. We hope to announce new training dates soon for February and March.

Standards and Editorial Policy:

The Standards and Editorial Policy Working Group recently began conversations about making editorial policy decisions publicly available through the SNAC web page. Adrienne Pruitt, Mike Rush, and Rachael Hu will work on this with the Communications Working Group.
